

TO ALLEVIATE CHILD LABOR

Committee of Fifteen Organized at Raleigh to Take Up the Work.

NO GIRLS UNDER FOURTEEN

No Children Must Work Under Fourteen Unless They Can Read and Write.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., February 10.—The State Child Labor Committee of North Carolina was organized in this city today with fifteen members, with the avowed purpose of seeing what can be done by the better class of manufacturers toward alleviating the "child labor evils that exist in this State."

They will contend for legislation prohibiting the working of children under fourteen at night; none under fourteen work at all unless they can read and write, and that girls under fourteen be not worked at all. The committee comists of Dr. H. A. Royster, chairman; Professor C. L. Coon, of the State Department of Education, secretary; President W. L. Poter, Wake Forest College; Dr. R. F. Campbell, Asheville; Rev. M.
D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Charlotte; Dr. J. J. Hall, pastor of Fayetteville Baptist Church; A. M. Seales, Greensboro; Bishop Joseph Blount, Cheshire; Ex-Governor Aycock; Professor Edwin Mims, Trinity College; President R. T. Vann, Baptist University; J. W. Fuller, of Carver's Poe, Rev. J. A. McKelvey, the latter presiding as secretary of the General Interstate Society.

The commissioner of labor and printing gives out figures from his forthcoming report on North Carolina pleasure and health resorts that make a decided creditable showing. There are 332 of these resorts, and they entertained 18,884 guests last season, estimating these on the basis of twelve weeks' season and on the minimum rates, one guest to a room, they paid $2,419,502 hotel charges—very much more than this for general and lighted entertainment.

Among the mountain resorts, Asheville leads, with fifty-nine hotels and 2,744 guests. Hendersonville is second, with thirty-six hotels and 1,730 guests, and Waynesville, third, with thirty-four hotels and 1,007 guests.

Lightingville Beach leads the coast resorts, with 1,500 capacity and $169,000 receipts, and Morehead is second, with $75,000 receipts last season.

Colonel John S. Cunningham changes the date for the annual meeting of the North Carolina Farmers' Protective Association, of which he is president, from February 12th to February 22d. It is hoped that at this meeting tobacco farmers will be able to establish such a system of co-operation as to keep down acreage and hold the crop for profitable prices. The meeting will be at Durham.

INCREASE HOURS.

Southern Railroad Works Blacksmiths in Open Air.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SPENCER, N. C., February 10.—The Southern Railway Company to-day increased the working hours of its large force of employees at its Spencer shop-house from nine to ten hours per day. The increase is occasioned by the heavy demand for the shops here, which are running both night and day. The list of employees, now numbering nearly two thousand, is being added to daily and all available mechanics are being employed. A movement is on foot in Spencer looking to the erection of two to three hundred additional dwelling houses in order to accommodate the Southern's employees. Despite the fact that this company's large blacksmith shop at this place was destroyed by fire last Monday, the work is being carried on as usual.
The usual number of forges were put in operation in open air in order to do emergency work.

FEARS HE WILL DIE.

Fell Five Stories Through Elevator Shaft and Still Lives.

NORFOLK, VA., February 10.—Louis Zenia, of Washington, D. C., who fell from the new law building here, who fell five stories through an elevator shaft in that building yesterday and was thought to have been fatally injured, appeared to-day not to have been so badly injured, as was supposed. Zenia complains of severe bruises about his body, from which he is suffering considerably, but the physicians in charge of his case have not yet pronounced him injured internally, and it appears that he will recover.
Zenia's brother has arrived here from Washington. Zenia fears he will die.

HAD SEVEN WIVES.

Only Spouse Who Appeared Was Active Sympathizer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., February 10.— Tom Wright, who has been in jail here two days, charged with having seven wives, was discharged in the municipal court this evening because no witnesses appeared against him. One wife alone, from whom he had been divorced, and with whom he is now living, was present, an active sympathizer with the accused.

the locomotive. In falling, his shoulder landed on a cross-tie, and the young man was painfully injured. He was picked up and carried on the same train to Harrisburg, and from there returned to Salisbury. He will recover.

WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS.

Ashe County Man Has Fine Political Record.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., February 10.—Hon.
T. C. Bule, of Ashe county, is in Salisbury to-day, and announces positively that he will be in the race for the nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth District, subject to the action of the next Democratic convention.

Mr. Bule is exceptionally strong in the mountain section of the district, and has a large following in the southern section.
He has a fine political record and has many friends working in his interests.

Illness is Fatal.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., February 10.— A report received here last night that Mr. J. A. Holton, brother of District Attorney A. E. Holton, was dead at Yadkinville, proved to be a mistake. Dr.
J. H. Bynum, who was called to see the sick man, returned this evening, and says there is practically no chance for Mr. Holton to recover. He has pneumonia. He has never been a strong man physically.

Adjudged a Bankrupt.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., February 10.—
There was a hearing to-day in the Federal Court before Judge Boyd on the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against W. L. Hill, a dry goods merchant of Winston-Salem. He was adjudged a bankrupt, and the matter was referred to Major Joseph E. Alexander, referee in bankruptcy, at Winston-Salem. The Piedmont Savings Bank was continued as receiver, pending the election of a trustee by the creditors.

Voorhees Appointed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., February 10.—Mr.
Harry T. Voorhees has been notified by Collector Summers that he had been appointed division collector for the division composed of the counties of Augusta, Rockbridge, Bath, Botetourt, Alleghany and Highland. Mr. Voorhees succeeds E.
J. McCullough. Mr. Voorhees is editor of the Old Dominion Sun, the only Republican newspaper in the Tenth District.

Mr. Miller to Entertain.

Assisted by his trained "Old South Quartette," Polk Miller will entertain for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First English Lutheran Church, Monday evening, February 13th, at 8:15.

To Elect Officers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 10.—Adjutant-General Nalle has fixed Monday, February 13, at noon, as the time, and Norfolk, as the place, for the election of a successor to Colonel Alexander M.
Higgins, as colonel of the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment. Lieutenant-Colonel Vaughan, of Franklin, will probably be the man elected. But Major T. J. Nottingham is mentioned. Major Nottingham will likely be made lieutenant-colonel and Captain B. W. Solomonky major of first battalion, composed of three Norfolk and one Franklin company.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A TRAIN CREW

Jumped As Engine Struck Sting of Hand-Cars and Escaped Death.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISBURG, VA., February 10.— The lives of nine men were imperiled near Strasburg yesterday, when the Washington train over the Harrisburg branch of the Southern Railroad struck a string of three hand-cars, just as the engine rounded a sharp curve. The men, realizing their peril, jumped when the pilot of the engine was less than two yards from the front hand-car. All were badly bruised by the fall, and several were struck by flying pieces of the cars, which were totally demolished.
The escape of the men is miraculous, inasmuch as the train was running at a high rate of speed when the collision took place. The operators of the hand-cars were on the one of the passenger train, which was thirty minutes late at the time of the accident.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Annexation the Sole Topic in the City at This Time.

MEN'S MASS MEETING TO-DAY

State Y. M. C. A. Secretary to Speak in Leader Hall—Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, 1
No. 1102 Hull Street.
Annexation and the circumstances that have resulted from the discussion of this subject, is the sole topic of all Manchesterians. There is nothing that takes the place of this argument, and throughout the city without an exception the people are discussing the merits of consolidation with Richmond.

The meeting of the City Council Friday night served to enliven the gossip of the people and in every store, on every corner and in every gathering, annexation was the topic. Even the police with all of their reserve force, were constrained to talk about what had been done and what would be done in the future.

Probably no question is being talked of so much as is the fact that Mr.
D. L. Pulliam, superintendent of the schools of the city, has been the author of seven editorials in a Republican weekly published in Manchester. There are many who criticize Mr. Pulliam's actions, and at the same time he has some supporters who believe that he should be allowed to express himself as he sees fit.

Men's Mass Meeting.

Mr. L. A. Coulter, State secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, will deliver the address at the mass meeting in Leader Hall this afternoon.
His subject will be "Detection, Destruction, Defeat."

Mr. Coulter has been one of the most attractive speakers at the great Academy meetings in Washington, and there is every probability that Leader Hall will be crowded to overflowing this afternoon when he makes his address to the men present.

Personals and Briefs.

Kenneth, the youngest son of City Secretary J. G. Saunders, is very ill at his home on East Thirteenth Street.
Clarence Scott, the young white man who was sentenced to serve ninety days in the Manchester jail, was yesterday paroled by Governor Swann. Mr.
T. Toney circulated the petition asking for the pardon of the young man.

Mr. "Jack Whitlock," one of Manchester's oldest citizens, is very ill at his home on West Thirteenth Street.

Ormel Stevens, a glass blower, forgetting to remove a bottle, with a bottle, was fined $10 by Mayor Maurice yesterday morning. The negro was insulting in his language to the white man and as a consequence was fined in the head.

Mr. T. H. Betty will leave next week for Denver, Colo., in search of health. He will be gone from the city for several months.

"GRAFT AND GRAFTERS" Senator LaFollette, Antagonist of Fraud, Coming.

The citizens of Richmond, thinkers, lovers of enlightenment, humor and satire, will have a great treat this season. Compelled to cancel important dates because of sickness, ex-Governor Robert M. La-Follette, now United States senator, will give only fifteen Saturday nights to his lecture platform tour and Richmond is to have the second treat. Rather small of stature, erect, square-shouldered, life possessor of gigantic intellect, a defiler of logic and force, with a musical voice, magnetic and forceful delivery, he is an or-atoric power. In Congress he has been a match for famous men; in his home State, Wisconsin, the successful antagonist of graft and grafters, and in the United States Senate he is already a power. Senator LaFollette will give his great lecture "Graft and Grafters; or The Menace of the Machine," at the Academy of Music February 17th.

that there will be comparatively short discussion of the bill in the Senate, though there is reason to believe that several of the senators on the Republican side, at least, will explain their position.

Senators Get "Sassy."

The lack of harmony prevailing among the Republicans of the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate becomes more apparent every day. On yesterday, following the sensational rencontre in the committee room between Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, and Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, and the latter's return leaving the room in a huff, Senator Dol-liver, the author of the Senate bill which is said to embody the views of the President, took Senator Aldrich to task for his attitude towards the bill and the general subject of rate regulation. Among other things, the Iowa senator told the senator from Rhode Island that he approached the subject with too much of levity.

Aldrich's reply was very hot. He told Dolliver, in substance, that he would not be criticised and dictated to by him or anybody else, and that he should not talk to him in the manner in which he had done. To this Mr. Dolliver is alleged to have replied that it should be understood that all this has leaked out from behind the closed doors of the committee room—that he did not put a particularly high estimate upon the personal opinion of the senator from Rhode Island, and, so far as his own future conduct was concerned, he should continue to speak to Mr. Aldrich in the terms that best pleased himself. Senator Elkins, chairman of the committee, had to call the senators to order and put an end to the colloquy.

The investigation of the Pennsylvania's control of the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Norfolk and Western and the Baltimore and Ohio, attracts more attention than the rate bill. It is believed that it will accomplish as much, if not more for the shippers, as the rate bill. After the result in the institution of proceedings by the department of justice, designed to put an end to the present condition of affairs.

A man who is as well acquainted with the affairs of the three subsidiary roads as is any man in the country not a railroad man, said to-day that while the Pennsylvania did not own a controlling interest in either of the three roads, he was almost certain that when the Pennsylvania bought a large block of the stock of each of the roads, there was an agreement that the former should control the road, and if that agreement was brought out at the investigation, it is thought, whether such an agreement can be abrogated on the order of the courts, or whether the courts would issue such order, are questions.

VOTE TAKEN ON RATE BILL FEB. 16

Senate Committee Will Scrutinize All Suggestions Daily Until Friday.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, February 10.—With all sorts of compromises rumored, the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce to-day resumed consideration of railroad rate bills, under the agreement to meet daily until February 16th, when a vote will be taken.

The chief difference of opinion concerns the court features and involves the right of the courts to review the rates fixed by the commission. The review by the courts before they become operative.

Certain opponents of the House bill, who have been contending for a specific recognition of that right, have suggested another and concededly a more moderate amendment. This provides that the courts may determine the lawfulness of a rate before they become operative, and fixed by the commission, which would have amounted to a test proceeding and have bearing on all subsequent orders of the commission.

How acceptable this proposed amendment will be to the majority of the opponents of the bill has not been ascertained, but Senator Aldrich is said to favor it.

It is a compromise only in that it provides for the determination of the commission's action before its provisions are enforced. It is believed generally that if adopted it would result in the greatest legal contest in the history of the courts.

Senator Tillman offered an amendment to exempt Pullman cars and express companies. He said that in view of the uncertainty as to whether they would be included in the definition of transportation lines, he would offer the amendment, to make certain that they would not be. No vote was taken on the amendment.

Republican members of the committee, with the exception of Senators Dolliver and Clapp, who are committed to the House bill, to-day held an extended conference following the meeting of the committee. They endeavored to draft an amendment providing for the review of orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would be likely to receive the favorable consideration of opponents of a feature of that character.
When the committee meets on Monday these members expect to offer an amendment in terms similar to the provisions of the Esch-Townsend bill, as it passed the House.

LOAD OF BUCKSHOT IN WOMAN'S BODY

Man Kills Friend in a Fit of Jealousy—Confesses
Crime.

Virginia Miller, a negro woman, was shot to death by Albert Grammer, a negro man, last night at 7 o'clock. The negro poured a load of buckshot from an old musket made in 1861 into the breast of the woman, who at the time was stretched across a bed in her home at No. 613 Canal Bank. After the shooting he made for the free country, and was arrested two hours afterwards by Patrolmen J. S.
Howell and L. H. Hulcher.

After being placed behind the bars at the station-house the negro admitted the shooting, and said that he was sorry that he had killed the woman. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause of the murder. The negro woman and the man had quarreled early in the afternoon, and Grammer, after taking several drinks, lost all control of his temper. He entered the house about 7 o'clock, and finding the woman lying across the bed, became so incensed that he went for his musket.
The woman threw up her hand to ward off the discharge, and received the full load of shot in her breast. Her right breast was torn off by the shot before her head was reached.

Coroner Taylor was summoned, and after viewing the remains of the woman, ordered an inquest to be held on Monday morning.

brated last Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gillespie, Chestnut Hill, when their daughter, Mrs. Sara Gallespie Burch, became the bride of Mr.
J. Clayton Bowman. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William T. Evans in the front drawing-room, which had been elaborately decorated in carnations, marigolds and pink candles.

The bride was attired in a going-away gown of blue cloth, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of roses.
She came in with the groom, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. W. M. Grubbs and J. Perry.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends the happy couple left on an extended Northern trip. The many beautiful presents attested the popularity of both.
